

BILTON WARD DEVELOPMENTS

The modern living spaces blend traditional and contemporary design beautifully and are enhanced by the use of light. The elegant living areas are defined by the generous use of honed Goss Artemis limestone.

Apollo limestone large format 90x90cm floor tiling.

*Beautiful homes marrying traditional and contemporary design.
Bilton Ward Developments, Cheshire.*

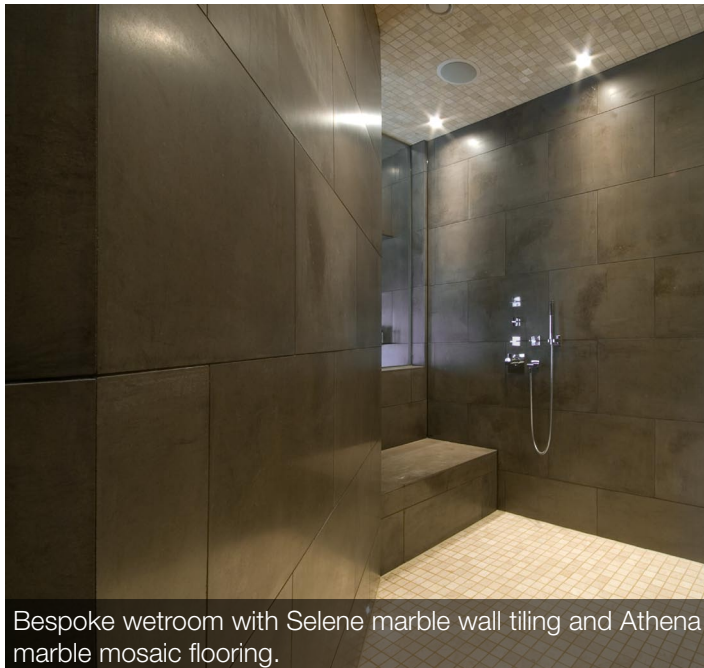

In a Bilton Ward property nothing is coincidental and nothing is left to chance. Each and every detail has been born out of meticulous attention to detail during the design process.

Their in-house design team are at the forefront of modern building design, creating stunning homes which are designed for their client's individual lifestyles.

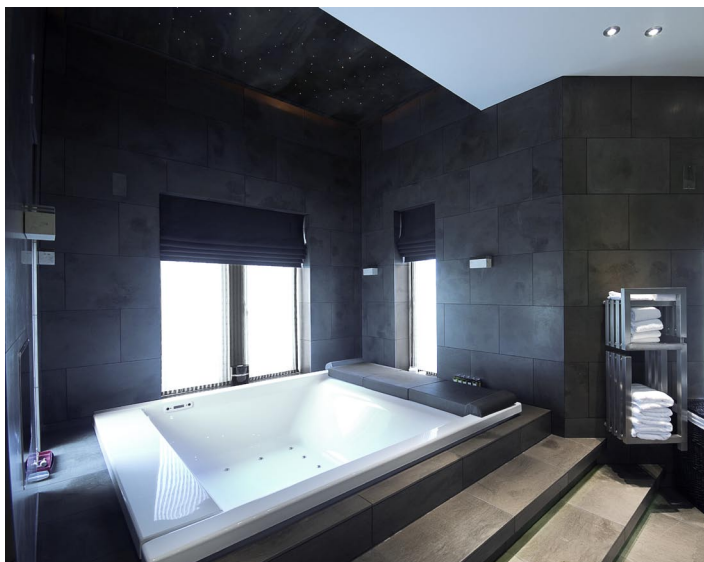

The finest of materials and finishes are standard within their properties. Look beyond this and you will find evidence of the functional design and space awareness which sets their homes apart.
